

Kitchener Downtown Hotel and Conference Centre to Spend Millions to Upgrade to a Crowne Plaza

The Delta Kitchener-Waterloo Hotel to revitalize downtown Kitchener as Crowne Plaza Hotel

Kitchener-Ontario (PRWEB) June 02, 2013 -- Kitchener, Ontario – The KW hotel and conference centre that has been a part of downtown Kitchener’s foundation and transformations over the years is about to turn a new corner. The largest full service hotel and conference centre in Kitchener will begin renovations this Spring.

Vista Hospitality is gearing up to implement the multi-million dollar renovations to upgrade the current Delta Kitchener-Waterloo to a completely renovated Crowne Plaza by Fall 2013. During the transition, the property will be known as the Kitchener Waterloo Hotel and Conference Centre. Visit Kitchener-hotel.com for further details.

Renovating and converting to an upscale Crowne Plaza Hotel is in line with the current and future revitalization plans for downtown Kitchener.

The hotel renovations will occur in two phases, with phase one focused on transforming all hotel guestrooms and public spaces. Phase two will include meeting and conference space and will be completed in early 2014.

“Although we’ve had a long lasting relationship with Delta Hotels & Resorts, we look forward to our new beginning with Crowne Plaza Hotels & Resorts. We believe it will be a great benefit to the local community and our hotel guests.”, Darin Miller, V.P. of Operations.

With 201 hotel guestrooms and over 17,000 square feet of conference and meeting space, the Crowne Plaza Kitchener-Waterloo will be the most attractive venue for conferences and special events in the region. “We continue to offer the most unique experience while traveling to Kitchener-Waterloo, with additional features such as our onsite Recreation Centre that offers bowling lanes and mini-putt as well as fitness and squash courts”, shares Yari Khan, General Manager.

May 31, Vista Hospitality will operate as the Kitchener-Waterloo Hotel & Conference Centre to continue to serve our hotel and conference guests during renovations. The company expects to have a fully renovated hotel operating as an upscale Crowne Plaza by Fall 2013. – Kitchener, Ontario.

Kitchener-Waterloo Hotel & Conference Centre, 105 King Street, Kitchener, Ontario, N2G 2K8

Contact Information

Yari Khan, General Manager

KW Hotel and Conference Centre

<http://kitchener-hotel.com/>

519-569-4570

Online Web 2.0 Version

You can read the online version of this press release here.