

Courtyard Fort Lauderdale Coral Springs Unveils a Multimillion-Dollar Renovation Hotel's Chic New Guest Rooms and Public Spaces Stand Out in Coral Springs, Florida

Coral Springs, Florida – February 9, 2016 – Travelers heading to the Fort Lauderdale area are in for a stylish surprise when they stay at the Courtyard Fort Lauderdale Coral Springs. Long known for its practical comforts and attentive service, the hotel recently underwent a top-to-bottom transformation that has aligned its aesthetics with its service. The result is one of the most attractive and relevant hotels in Broward County. The Courtyard Fort Lauderdale Coral Springs is independently owned and managed by the Vista Property Management under a license agreement with Marriott Hotels.

“We basically built a new hotel,” said General Manager Rob Lewis. The multimillion-dollar project began in July 2015, was completed in January 2016 and addressed all 110 guest rooms and suites, the lobby, the meeting room, the fitness center and the restaurant.

While the remodel has yielded a completely new look, the priority has always been guest comfort. Accordingly, visitors to this Fort Lauderdale hotel will enjoy the best of both style and substance. Guest rooms, for example, balance their crisp, contemporary look with amenities like movable desks, charging stations and refrigerators. Updated linens enhance comfort, and the color palette of soft grays, aqua and white create a soothing ambience.

When visitors leave their guest rooms, they experience a seamless transition, whether they're visiting the updated fitness center or stopping for a meal at The Bistro, whose new and comfortable seating accommodates business travelers and families with equal ease.

Some of the most impactful changes have been to the lobby. This integrative space now welcomes guests with flexible seating areas that let them work or relax, as well as have access to free Wi-Fi and The Market. The 24-hour business center, which features 21" Apple iMac workstations, a Boarding Pass station and copy/fax services, is also available to all guests.

"We are excited to share our hotel's many new features with our guests," said Mr. Lewis. "No matter what brings them to the Fort Lauderdale area, our property's modern design, numerous amenities and convenient location make it an ideal destination for everyone."
