WHAT: Brooke Henderson, Canadian professional golfer and participant in the LPGA tour, was in Kitchener-Waterloo last week participating in the 2016 Manulife LPGA Classic. The Crowne Plaza Kitchener-Waterloo hosted her during this time, and was proud to have her as an esteemed guest.

Crowne Plaza believes that business travel should be better – and works hard to make it so. With a full fitness center, swimming pool, and sauna, as well as full-service, on-site restaurant and lounge, Crowne Plaza Kitchener-Waterloo gives guests like Brooke everything they need to have a productive and relaxing stay.

Located in the Market District of Downtown Kitchener, this hotel has recently undergone a multi-million-dollar renovation. With 201 modern guest rooms, meeting and event space, complimentary Wi-Fi, restaurant and lounge, indoor bowling, and more, this hotel has it all.

When it comes to meeting and events, the Crowne Plaza Kitchener-Waterloo has you covered. They can accommodate small board meetings of 8-10 people, as well as larger events in their 15,000 sq. ft. of meeting and event space.

The Crowne Plaza Kitchener-Waterloo also offers something extra that guests like Brooke might especially enjoy – an on-site indoor mini-golf!

Yari Khan, General Manager, Crowne Plaza Kitchener-Waterloo, says: “It was an absolute pleasure to have the lovely Brooke Henderson stay with us. We wanted to ensure she had everything she needed to not only have a great trip, but to be relaxed and ready for the LPGA Classic. Supporting Canadian athletes is always a pleasure for us.”
